

ATS Corporation Appoints Jack Tomarchio to Board of Directors

MCLEAN, VA – (BUSINESSWIRE) – August 18, 2008, ATS Corporation (“ATSC” or the “Company”) (OTCBB: ATCT), a leading information technology company that delivers innovative technology solutions to government and commercial organizations, today announced the appointment of Jack Tomarchio, a former Department of Homeland Security (“DHS”) senior official, to its Board of Directors, effective today.

Mr. Tomarchio brings extensive government, business, and legal experience to the board of ATSC. Most recently, he served as the Principal Deputy Assistant Secretary in the Office of Intelligence and Analysis at DHS. In this role, he was primarily responsible for enabling information sharing across state and local governments, the private sector and the intelligence community. Prior to his appointment to DHS, he was a partner with a national law firm where he was the co-chair of the firm’s Government Relations Department and the National Security Practice. He has also founded a number of businesses that focus on government affairs and homeland security-related matters, as well as a venture capital fund which invests in emerging security technologies. His early career was spent in the U.S. Army’s 82nd Airborne Division, where he served in Operation Urgent Fury in Grenada and Operation Desert Storm, among other posts, as well as being commissioned as a Judge Advocate.

Mr. Tomarchio is replacing George Troendle on the ATSC Board of Directors. Mr. Troendle’s recent resignation from the Board was due to his appointment as the Company’s Chief Operating Officer effective August 11, 2008.

ATSC Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer Dr. Ed Bersoff stated, “We are extremely privileged to have Jack join our Board after his recent departure from DHS. We will especially depend on his experience in security and intelligence matters to contribute to our expanding information-sharing capabilities, where we have seen tremendous growth opportunities.”
