

ATSC Corporation Announces New Contract Award Totaling $13.5 Million for Defense Logistics Agency

MCLEAN, VA – (PRNEWswire) – October 4, 2010, ATSC Corporation (“ATSC” or the “Company”) (NYSE Amex: ATSC), a leading information technology company that delivers innovative technology solutions to government and commercial organizations, today announced that it has been awarded a new contract totaling $13.5 million over a four-year term with the U.S. Defense Logistics Agency (“DLA”) Information Operations Philadelphia organization. Under this contract, ATSC will continue to provide full life cycle support for the Subsistence Total Order and Receipt Electronic System (“STORES”). STORES is the primary system used by the military for the ordering and receipt of food and other subsistence items which processes transactions exceeding $4 billion annually. The system handles comprehensive supply chain management, from military dining facilities to commercial food vendors worldwide.

ATSC Senior Vice President of Federal Programs, John Hassoun said, “ATSC is pleased to have been entrusted by the Defense Logistics Agency to continue our support of the mission-critical STORES system which enables the safe, efficient and effective ordering and receipt of food and other subsistence items for our troops across the globe.”
